INTRODUCTION

THE earliest register of Butcombe is a small paper volume, recently rebound, and is in a good state of preservation. It contains the Marriages from 1693 to 1754, the Baptisms from 1692 to 1809, and the Burials from 1693 to 1807.

The second and third volumes of Marriages are of the usual type. The second contains also the Banns from 1759 to 1809.

The Savery family, of which two members are mentioned in the second register, were the owners of Butcombe Court.¹ "Mrs Elizabeth Plaister," of the first register, was possibly the daughter of Mr Richard Plaister, who bought the manor and advowson of Butcombe in 1735.² "Jane Baker," married in 1790, possibly belonged to the Baker family residing at that time³ at Aldwick Court.
